

Apart from the demonstrations, meetings have been held by cadres and the masses in factories, people's communes, army units, shops and schools and by literary and art and scientific and technical circles and neighbourhood communities to celebrate the victory and denounce the anti-party "gang of four". Commune peasants in Peking's outlying districts also held meetings and demonstrations. Full of confidence and militancy, the cadres have pledged to rally closely round the party Central Committee headed by Chairman Hua Kuo-feng, study Marxism-Leninism-Mao Tsetung Thought conscientiously, persevere in continuing the revolution under the dictatorship of the proletariat, consolidate and develop the gains of the Great Proletarian Cultural Revolution, grasp revolution, promote production and other work and preparedness against war, and go on improving the already excellent situation in the revolution.

[Text] Peking, October 24, 1976 (HSINHUA)--Following is the text of the October 25 editorial, entitled "A Great, Historic Victory", by the PEOPLE'S DAILY, the RED FLAG journal and the LIBERATION ARMY DAILY:

Red flags are flying over the mountains and rivers, everywhere in the motherland, and the faces of our 800 million people glow with joy. Hundreds of millions of people in all parts of our country have held mammoth demonstrations in the past few days. One million army men and civilians yesterday met in a grand rally in Peking, the capital. They warmly celebrated Comrade Hua Kuo-feng's assuming the posts of chairman of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China and chairman of the CCP Central Committee Military Commission, hailed the great victory in smashing the plot of the anti-party clique of Wang Hung-wen, Chang Chun-chiao, Chiang Ching and Yao Wen-yuan to usurp party and state power, and denounced with great indignation the vile crimes of the "gang of four". The whole party, the whole army and the people of all nationalities throughout the country are determined to rally most closely round the party Central Committee headed by Chairman Hua Kuo-feng, carry out Chairman Mao's behests, and carry the proletarian revolutionary cause through to the end.

Comrade Hua Kuo-feng was selected by the great leader Chairman Mao himself to be his successor. Chairman Mao proposed Comrade Hua Kuo-feng for the posts of first vice-chairman of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China and premier of the State Council in April 1976. Then, on April 30, Chairman Mao wrote to Comrade Hua Kuo-feng in his own handwriting: "WITH YOU IN CHARGE, I'M AT EASE". In accordance with the arrangements Chairman Mao made before he passed away, a resolution of the Central Committee of the Chinese Communist Party was adopted on October 7, 1976, appointing Comrade Hua Kuo-feng chairman of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China and chairman of the Military Commission of the CCP Central Committee. This represents the common aspiration of the whole party, the whole army and the people of the whole country and was a great victory in smashing the plot of the 'gang of four' to usurp party and state power.

It was a joyous event of immense historic significance. Comrade Hua Kuo-feng, in whom Chairman Mao had boundless faith and whom the people throughout the country deeply love, is now the leader of our party, and our party and state have a reliable helmsman to continue our victorious advance along Chairman Mao's proletarian revolutionary line.

The party Central Committee headed by Comrade Hua Kuo-feng crushed the plot of the "gang of four" for a counter-revolutionary restoration and got rid of a big evil in our party. Wang-Chang-Chiang-Yao had long formed a cabal [Peking NCNA Domestic Service in Chinese at 1600 GMT on 24 October and Peking Domestic Service in Mandarin at 1600 GMT on 24 October both render "cabal" as "'gang of four'"] engaged in factional activities to split the party. The great leader Chairman Mao was aware of this long ago and severely criticized and educated them again and again. And he made some arrangements for solving this problem. Chairman Mao criticized them on July 17, 1974, saying: "YOU'D BETTER TAKE CARE, DON'T FORM A SMALL FACTION OF FOUR PEOPLE." Chairman Mao criticized them again on December 24 of the same year. He said: "DON'T FORM A FACTION. THOSE WHO DO WILL FALL." In November and December of the same year, as the leading central organs were preparing to convene the Fourth National People's Congress, Chairman Mao said: "CHIANG CHING HAS WILD AMBITIONS. SHE WANTS WANG HUNG-WEN TO BE CHAIRMAN OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE OF THE NATIONAL PEOPLE'S CONGRESS AND HERSELF TO BECOME CHAIRMAN OF THE PARTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE."

On May 3, 1975, at a meeting of the Political Bureau of the party Central Committee, Chairman Mao reiterated the basic principles of "three dos and three don'ts", and warned them: "PRACTISE MARXISM-LENINISM, AND NOT REVISIONISM; UNITE AND DON'T SPLIT; BE OPEN AND ABOVEBOARD, AND DON'T INTRIGUE AND CONSPIRE. DON'T FUNCTION AS A GANG OF FOUR, DON'T TO IT ANY MORE, WHY DO YOU KEEP DOING IT?" That very day Chairman Mao, on this question, gave the instruction that "IF THIS IS NOT SETTLED IN THE FIRST HALF OF THIS YEAR, IT SHOULD BE SETTLED IN THE SECOND HALF: IF NOT THIS YEAR, THEN NEXT YEAR: IF NOT NEXT, THEN THE YEAR AFTER."

Toward Chairman Mao's criticism and education, the 'gang of four' took the attitude of counter-revolutionary double-dealers who comply in public but oppose in private. Not only did they not show the slightest sign of repentance, but on the contrary they went from bad to worse, further and further down the wrong path. During the period when Chairman Mao was seriously ill and after he passed away, their attacks on the party became more frantic and their attempts to usurp the supreme leadership of the party and state became more hurried. We faced a grave danger of the party turning revisionist and the state changing colour. At this critical moment in the Chinese revolution, the party Central Committee headed by Comrade Hua Kuo-feng, representing the fundamental interests and common aspiration of the whole party, the whole army and the whole people and with the boldness of vision of the proletariat, adopted resolute measures against the anti-party "gang of four", smashed their plot to usurp party and state power, and saved the revolution and the party. Thus the proletariat won a decisive victory in countering the attack of the bourgeoisie.

The "gang of four", a bane to the country and the people, committed heinous crimes. They completely betrayed the basic principles of "three dos and three don'ts" that Chairman Mao earnestly taught, wantonly tampered with Marxism-Leninism-Mao Tsetung Thought, tampered with Chairman Mao's directives, opposed Chairman Mao's proletarian revolutionary line on a whole series of domestic and international questions, and practised revisionism under the signboard of Marxism. They carried out criminal activities to split the party, working as a unit, going their own way, establishing their own system inside the party, doing as they wished, lording it over others, and placing themselves above Chairman Mao and the party Central Committee. They were busy making intrigues and conspiracies and put their nose into everything everywhere to stir up trouble, interfere with Chairman Mao's revolutionary line and strategic plans and undermine the socialist revolution and socialist construction.

They confounded right and wrong, made rumors, worked in a big way to create counter-revolutionary opinion, fabricated accusations against others and labelled everybody, and attempted to overthrow a large number of leading party, government and army comrades in the central organs and various localities and seize party and state leadership. They worshipped things foreign and fawned on foreigners, maintained illicit foreign relationships, betrayed important party and state secrets, and unscrupulously practised capitulationism and national betrayal. Resorting to various manevres, they pursued a counter-revolutionary revisionist line, an ultra-right line. Chairman Mao pointed out: "YOU ARE MAKING THE SOCIALIST REVOLUTION, AND YET DON'T KNOW WHERE THE BOURGEOISIE IS. IT IS RIGHT IN THE COMMUNIST PARTY--THOSE IN POWER TAKING THE CAPITALIST ROAD. THE CAPITALIST-ROADERS ARE STILL ON THE CAPITALIST ROAD." Wang Hung-wen, Chang Chun-chiao, Chiang Ching and Yao Wen-yuan are typical representatives of the bourgeoisie inside the party, unrepentant capitalist roaders still travelling on the capitalist road and a gang of bourgeois conspirators and careerists.

Our struggle against the 'gang of four' is a life-and-death struggle between the two classes, the two roads and the two lines. By forming a narrow self-seeking clique to usurp party and state power, the "gang of four" sought to change completely the proletarian nature of our party, change its basic line for the entire historical period of socialism and restore capitalism in China. If their scheme had succeeded, it would have meant serious disaster for the Chinese people. The crushing of this anti-party clique has rid the party of a hidden danger, rid the country of pests and redressed the grievances of the people, much to the satisfaction of the party, the army and the people. This is a great example of the application of Chairman Mao's great theory of continuing the revolution under the dictatorship of the proletariat. It is of tremendous immediate importance and far-reaching historic significance for our adhering to the party's basic line, combating and preventing revisionism, consolidating the dictatorship of the proletariat, preventing the restoration of capitalism, building socialism, upholding the principle of proletarian internationalism and carrying out Chairman Mao's revolutionary line and policies in foreign affairs. It is an immense victory for the Great Proletarian Cultural Revolution and for Mao Tsetung Thought.

Chairman Mao pointed out in 1971: "OUR PARTY ALREADY HAS A HISTORY OF 50 YEARS AND HAS GONE THROUGH 10 MAJOR STRUGGLES ON THE QUESTION OF PARTY LINE. THERE WERE PEOPLE IN THESE 10 STRUGGLES WHO WANTED TO SPLIT OUR PARTY, BUT NONE WERE ABLE TO DO SO. THIS IS A QUESTION WORTH STUDYING: SUCH A BIG COUNTRY, SUCH A LARGE POPULATION, YET NO SPLIT. THE ONLY EXPLANATION IS THAT THE PEOPLE, THE PARTY AND THE ENTIRE PARTY MEMBERSHIP ARE OF ONE MIND IN OPPOSING A SPLIT. IN VIEW OF ITS HISTORY, THIS PARTY OF OURS HAS A GREAT FUTURE."

Summing up our party's experience in the 10 struggles on the question of party line, Chairman Mao pointed out that "THE CORRECTNESS OR INCORRECTNESS OF THE IDEOLOGICAL AND POLITICAL LINE DECIDES EVERYTHING" and put forward the three basic principles "PRACTISE MARXISM, AND NOT REVISIONISM; UNITE, AND DON'T SPLIT; BE OPEN AND ABOVEBOARD, AND DON'T INTRIGUE AND CONSPIRE." These principles are our criteria for distinguishing correct from erroneous lines and our powerful weapon for discovering the bourgeoisie inside the party. The whole history of our party shows that only by adhering to the three basic principles can our party march in step, win wholehearted support from the masses of the people and organize a mighty revolutionary contingent, and only by so doing can our revolutionary cause thrive. To go against the three basic principles is to betray the cause of proletarian revolution and the vital interests of the party and the people; anyone who does this inevitably loses the confidence of the people and brings ruin and shame upon himself. On 10 occasions in the past, the chieftains of opportunist lines tried to split our party, but they all failed. The present Wang-Chang-Chiang-Yao anti-party 'gang of four', too, has come to an ignominious end because it practised revisionism and splittism, engaged in conspiracies to usurp party and state power, and thus completely forfeited the confidence of the people and became extremely isolated. History has time and again shown the fact that it is far from easy to crush our party. Our party is worthy of its reputation as a party founded, tempered and nurtured by Chairman Mao himself, as a politically mature Marxist-Leninist party and as a great, glorious and correct party.

While acclaiming our party's great historic victory, the whole party, the whole army and the people of all nationalities throughout the country, under the leadership of the party Central Committee headed by Chairman Hua Kuo-feng, are determined to hold high the great red banner of Marxism-Leninism-Mao Tsetung Thought, persist in taking class struggle as the key link, adhere to the party's basic line and persevere in continuing the revolution under the dictatorship of the proletariat. We must thoroughly expose the vile crimes of the Wang-Chang-Chiang-Yao anti-party clique, penetratingly criticize their counter-revolutionary revisionist line and eradicate its poisonous influence. It is imperative to draw a strict distinction between the two different types of contradictions and handle them correctly, earnestly implement Chairman Mao's principles "LEARN FROM PAST MISTAKES TO AVOID FUTURE ONES AND CURE THE SICKNESS TO SAVE THE PATIENT" and "HELP MORE PEOPLE BY EDUCATING THEM AND NARROW THE TARGET OF ATTACK", so as to unite with all those that can be united with. We should continue to criticize Teng Hsiao-ping and repulse the right deviationist attempt to reverse correct verdicts. We should enthusiastically support new socialist things, consciously restrict bourgeois right and consolidate and develop the gains of the Great Proletarian Cultural Revolution.

We should GRASP REVOLUTION, PROMOTE PRODUCTION AND OTHER WORK AND PREPAREDNESS AGAINST WAR, go all out, aim high and achieve greater, faster, better and more economical results in building socialism, and continue to develop the excellent situation.

Having eliminated the "four pests", our party has become even more united, even stronger and even more vigorous, and the dictatorship of the proletariat in our country is more consolidated. The masses of the people are in high spirits and militant; everywhere in our motherland, orioles sing and swallows dart. Before us arises "A POLITICAL SITUATION IN WHICH THERE ARE BOTH CENTRALISM AND DEMOCRACY, BOTH DISCIPLINE AND FREEDOM, BOTH UNITY OF WILL AND PERSONAL EASE OF MIND AND LIVELINESS".

Since we have such a great party, army and people, no difficulty whatsoever can stop our triumphant advance. Under the leadership of the party Central Committee headed by Chairman Hua Kuo-feng, we are able to continue our advance in the socialist revolution in accordance with Chairman Mao's line and policies and, in accordance with the grand plan Chairman Mao mapped out, accomplish the comprehensive modernization of agriculture, industry, national defence and science and technology and build China into a powerful socialist country before the end of the century, so as to make a greater contribution to humanity and work for the final realization of communism.
